WOMANS WORTH CLEARED BY DR. LEE

Lecture Yesterday Was Finishing "Third Act" Of Series.

"Victorious Womanhood" Subject of Final Lecture of Series by Dr. Lee In Smith Memorial Hall Yesterday Afternoon—Inspiring Subject Handled in Masterly Style—Says Mission of Average Woman is to Be a Home-Maker.

The third and last lecture by Dr. Guy Carlton Lee in this city was given in the Smith Memorial building yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at which time the distinguished lecturer spoke on "Victorious Womanhood." Many who heard each of the lectures declared that the one of yesterday afternoon was the most eloquent of the series.

The audience which greeted Dr. Lee was by far the largest which greeted him in this city and the animation in the faces of his hearers showed that Dr. Lee had struck a responsive chord.

With the inspiring subject "Victorious Womanhood," Dr. Lee proceeded to develop it by this clever and attractive introduction: "The subject of women is as many sided as a diamond, and if we are adequately to consider any one phase of it, we must choose between the sides. This selection is by no means easy; but since it must be made we will choose woman's influence in the world's advance and show not only why she was the predominating influence of yesterday but why she is today and always will be."

Dr. Lee first considered woman in the prehistoric age and noting that at that time she was "a chattel, a toy an animal, owned body and soul by man," he advanced to the thought "woman's first upward progress came only when love asserted its independence—its right to be. And it was through the Hebrew that it came—the first evangel of the human heart." Then followed a beautiful picture of the Shulamite from the song of Solomon. "It was the cry of the Shulamite that for the first time in the record of history of man, voiced the reason the foundation, the sanctity of love."

The condition of women in various parts of lands was next discussed, the end in view being to show the contribution each made toward the advancement of humanity. The influence of the German woman upon history was then introduced and the speaker said: "The Germanic woman, for the first time, gave to the world the idea of woman's physical and moral equality with man. She made herself man's companion in the truest sense of the word. She became man's helpmeet as well as the mother of his children. She gave man a home, not a harem. These things did the good women of the Teutonic lands, the mothers of the race that first settled this country."

Speaking through the influence of the women of middle ages the speaker approached modern times and he said: "With the advent of modern times came the full opportunity of women. To this and the use she has made of that opportunity we will make an analysis of woman's nature and of her position in the world today."

Here followed a convincing and eloquent dissertation teeming with authoritative psychology, keenly and interestingly adapted for all hearers, to prove the assertion that woman is in all things man's equal, and yet in all things differs from man. Woman's physical and mental equality and moral superiority were considered, the expostition closing thus: "Some of us do not perceive the cause of woman's departure from tradition; ancient ideals die hard; man may regret the change in woman's outlook and purpose, but regret can not prevent woman's progress. Men of narrow minds often grow fearful over the elasticity of woman's mental and moral capacity, and seem haunted with a constant dread. There is only one thing to dread in the development of a woman's life, and this is the danger of her being in a place which does not give her sufficient outlet for her true nature. It is only when a woman's nature is starved for sympathy that there is danger of illegitimate outbreaks of her emotions."

Turning specifically to American women, Dr. Lee mentioned that she has more than her sisters into enjoyment of her heritage of freedom, and remarked that "admitting the nobility and power of woman in business life and in the work of reform, I still assert that for the great mass of women, destiny does not lie in the marts of trade nor upon the platform. The mission of the average woman is to be a homemaker."

And yet I say that woman's activity in business life has benefited the home. The privilege of earning her own living makes more homes and happier ones. I, however, think it ill-advised for a married woman to accept a business position provided her husband can support her even if ever so plainly." This position was taken because the lecturer stands out against anything that is to the injury of the family, that tends to destroy sweetness in home life.

In closing Dr. Lee warned his hearers against those who decry marriage. He said:

"But I say to you—and I know that I speak for every clean and virile man and woman, for every true student of history—I say, beware of those who decry marriage, for even though they may not realize it, they are endangering the virtue of our women, the morality of the state, the integrity of the nation."

The series of lectures were under the auspices of the Civic League, which organization cleared $75 on the course of lectures. Of this amount $25 will go toward the erection of the Gorrell Memorial fountain, corner Asheboro and Gorrell streets. The remainder will be used in beautifying Fisher Park and making other civic improvements in the city.

CONVENTION OF YOUNG PEOPLE

One to Be Held At Elon College Next Month—Alamance Battle Ground.

Elon College, April 7.—The Southern Christian Convention which met in Greensboro last May instructed its Christian Endeavor and Sunday school bodies to call a convention of the young people in the year 1909 to take steps as to the best method or methods to be used by young people in Christian work. These bodies obedient to the conventions order have called this convention of young people to meet in session at Elon College, May 29 to 31, inclusive, of this year. Prof. W. P. Lawrence of the college is chairman of the board to arrange for the convention and has taken active steps looking to the occasion. He is very hopeful that the convention will be a large one and interesting from the first to the last.

Large interest is just now being centered in Alamance county in the preservation of the Alamance Battle Grounds six miles south of the college. The Legislature passed an act incorporating the said battle ground and made one of its incorporators Dr. E. L. Moffitt, president of Elon College. These incorporators also were intrusted with special appropriations to be expended on this battle ground.

STEAMERS COLLIDE

Large Hole Torn in Side of Freighter—No Lives Lost.

New York, April 7.—The Ward Line steamer, Havana, ran into the Munsion Line freighter, Cubana, near the quarantine station on the Staten Island this morning, tearing a large hole in the Cubana's side near the stern. The Havana was not damaged. The Cubana was towed by tugs toward the beach at Clifton, Staten Island.

Cubana, which arrived from Cuba last night, was anchored off the quarantine station when the Havana, which was arriving from Havana, struck the freighter on the port quarter.

The Havana's stem cut a gash in the Cubana's side extending below the water line and the freighter began to fill with water.

Tugs came promptly to her assistance and towed her in shore until she grounded on Staten Island. The Havana proceeded to her dock. No lives were lost.

Philadelphia, April 7.—Arraigned before Justice of the Peace Barr in Camden yesterday on a charge of assault and battery on his wife, Henry Schmidt, of No. 302 North Twelfth street, declared that the domestic unhappiness was caused by his wife insisting upon feeding him on buckwheat cakes at every meal.

"It's buckwheat cakes in the morning and buckwheat cakes at night," said Schmidt, "and when I ask for a little lunch I get buckwheat cakes, buckwheat cakes."

Schmidt is also alleged to have threatened his wife's life the last time she served him with buckwheat cakes, and he was committed to jail in default of bail for court.

Booth is still active in the cause which he has made his life work. Following his return from a trip to South Africa he has visited Russia during the present month in an effort to induce the emperor to permit the Salvation Army to extend its organization and operations to include that country.

However, the train was delayed only a few minutes, the remainder of the train being cut loose from the derailed cars and switched around to another track. What caused the derailment is somewhat of a mystery as no cause could be found. The rear truck of the second car was first to leave the track. The front truck of the third car remained on the track, but the rear truck was derailed as was the front truck on the fourth car also.

NEW OFFICIALS OF PENITENTIARY

J. J. Laughinghouse Succeeds J. S. Mann As Superintendent

A Complete Change of Officers of Institution—General Robertson Opens His Office—A. & M. Defeats Villa Nova—Red Hopkins Begins Sentence—A Dudish Convict Carried to State Prison—New Military Company Mustered in at Thomasville.

Raleigh, April 7.—In compliance with instructions from Governor Kitchin the board of directors of the State penitentiary today elected J. J. Laughinghouse, of Pitt county, superintendent; T. W. Fenner, Halifax county, chief clerk; T. P. Sales, of Raleigh, warden; Dr. I. G. Young, of Youngsville, physician. This is a complete change in the officers of the prison, retiring J. S. Mann as superintendent, T. M. Arrington as chief clerk, J. M. Fleming as warden and Dr. J. R. Rogers as physician. The retiring board of directors met today with the new board for the formal transfer of the prison affairs to the new administration. The members of the new board of directors as recently announced by Governor Kitchin are R. L. Doughton, Laural Springs; J. M. Davis, Charlotte; Geo. E. Hunter, Raleigh; Geo. A. Norwood, Goldsboro; Geo. A. Holderness, Tarboro.

General T. R. Robertson, late adjutant general of the North Carolina National Guard, has opened his office as ordnance officer of the guards in the new State arsenal building near the corner of Wilmington and Morgan streets. Gen. Robertson has just completed twenty-five years of service in the North Carolina Guard and Governor Kitchin has issued to him a commission as Brevet Major General as a compliment for his long and faithful service.

Villa Nova proved another victim for the seemingly invincible A. & M. team yesterday the score being 3 to 0. It was one of the finest games of college ball ever seen on the Raleigh diamond. Sexton pitched for the farmers and Barry for the visitors, the strike outs being respectively 6 and 2. Only three hits were gotten off of Sexton, and five off of Barry. The same teams battle again today and the interest is great.

Red Hopkins has begun his two years' sentence in the penitentiary for his part in the murder of Dr. E. W. Smith, of Richmond, and Cotten and Holderfield, principals in the murder, have fifteen days during which to perfect their appeals if they are to appeal at all. It is understood that their counsel advised against appeals while the two prisoners want an appeal. The expectation is that they will just remain in the jail until the time limit for perfecting appeals is up and then be ordered to the penitentiary in default of the appeal movement.

Officrs for the new military company just mustered in at Thomasville as Company L, Third Regiment, are commissioned by the adjutant general by order of Governor Kitchin. They are W. A. Vergwyn, captain; Zed Griffith, first and C. H. Newby, second lieutenant.

An addition just made to the convict force of the penitentiary is E. E. Hight, of Henderson. He is committed to serve one year for embezzling jewelry from A. W. Chloston & Co., Henderson. He was at one time a jeweler in Henderson himself. When he was presented at the penitentiary last evening by the sheriff of Vance county he wore a Prince Albert and carried a gold headed cane and the prison authorities declare that he was the most dressed up convict that has been entered there in a great while.

It is expected that announcement will be made within the next day or two of the appointment of the chief clerk in the state department of insurance to succeed D. H. Milton, resigned. John Peschau recently of Wilmington, but now of Wilson, is prominently mentioned. Also S. H. Burtt, of Wilmington. It is expected that one or the other of these gentlemen will be appointed.

Prof. J. A. Bivins, formerly superintendent of Monroe graded schools, has taken up his work as supervisor of teacher training in North Carolina. Professor Bivins will have charge of the work of the late Captain John Duckett and will look after the Indian and Colored Normal Schools of the state as well as supervise the training of white teachers. Mr. Bivins has a big job on his hands, but he is big enough to handle it. He is a man of splendid ability and will be a tower of strength to the state's educational system.

President of Keely Co. Here.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Oughton, of Dwight, Ill., spent yesterday here with Col. and Mrs. W. H. Osborne at their home on Washington street and left last night for Richmond, Virginia. Mr. Oughton is president and chemist of the Leslie E. Keely Company, of Dwight, Ill., and while visiting the fifty-six branch institutes, stopped over to visit the one here. Mr. Oughton was very much pleased with the large patronage given the institute here and after an automobile drive over the city was amazed at the growth and prosperity of the city during his absence of seven years.

"PARABLE OF THE EXCUSES"

Evangelist John J. Wicker Will Preach on This Subject Tonight.

"The Price of Sin" was the subject of the sermon at the First Baptist church last night by Evangelist John J. Wicker. At the close of the service four were admitted to church membership, three by letter and one by experience.

Mr. Wicker announced that he would preach tonight on the subject, "The Parable of the Excuses." He said he hoped there would be among the congregation some of the business men of the city who are not Christians.

He urged the Christians in the congregation to do personal work. It was greatly needed, he said. "Ten years ago," he said, "this church would have been crowded with people and by this time there would have been scores of conversions."

He said that the world had so multiplied its diversions that people don't go to church as they once did. In the hard, solid lessons that are taught in church they don't get the nervous stimulation that they derive from the five cent shows.

The remedy was, he stated, for Christians to go out manfully and do personal work. If they didn't, the churches might as well shut up shop.

Anti-Saloon Forces Win in Colorado.

Denver, Col., April 7.—The anti-saloon forces were generally victorious throughout the State at the municipal elections yesterday.

DANVILLE 12; GREENSBORO 5

Ragged Game of Ball At Cone Park Yesterday.

Errors and Loose Playing Responsible For Scores Made—Pitchers For Each Side Did Good Work, But Were Given Little Support—Four of McKevitt's Best Players Absent—Locals Go Up Against Boston Team This Afternoon—Guilford Defeats Wake Forest.

Danville walloped Greensboro yesterday by the score of 12 to 5 in a ragged game which abounded in hits, errors, stupid base running, and lots of careless playing. The locals were the chief offenders, but the work of the visitors at times was equally as bad.

Bob Howard was in the box for Danville during the first five innings and barring a little wildness pitched winning ball. Only one hit was secured off his delivery, errors by his teammates being responsible for the two runs scored by the locals while he was in the pit. Moser succeeded Howard in the sixth and was touched up rather lively, nine hits being secured off his delivery.

Manager McKevitt sent Mersman to the box at the opening of the game wher he remained for five innings. Four runs were scored by the visitors during this time but not a single one was earned. Long finished the game but fared worse. Three runs were scored in the first inning on errors by Anthony and Walsh coupled with two hits. Two hits and an error in the third allowed Danville their fourth tally. Three goose eggs were handed the visitors in the fourth, fifth, and sixth innings but in the seventh trouble broke loose again. Four runs were scored by Danville in this inning on two singles, two errors, a stolen base, and a passed ball, all mixed up in a way that made everybody present wish they were home again. Danville tallied again in the eighth and crossed the plate three times in the ninth in the same way.

Hicks scored the first run for his team on a wild throw to first which allowed him to go to third, and a long fly to left garden which enabled him to complete his journey to the plate safely. The locals scored again in the fifth when Stube walked, stole second, and scored when Danville's left fielder failed to catch Long's drive which was cut down to a single by being knocked down by that player. Lynch in the seventh hit one past third that was good for three sacks. Stube next up, walked. Finnerty fanned. Long hit a hot one between first and second which caught Stube who was making a dash for second on the shins, this putting him out. Long was safe but was robbed of a two bagger by the ball hitting Stube. Anthony singled scoring Lynch.

In the ninth the locals added two more runs when Stube walked for the fourth time followed by a single by Finnerty and a bad error by the visitors which allowed Stube to score. Finnerty took third on this play and came home when Anthony pasted one to left garden.

The local team is a patched up affair as it is now composed. A pitcher played first base, at catcher played right field, a borrowed man short, and recruits in center field and third base. Playing the men out of position prevents any team work and prevents that lack of confidence that is essential to the winning of games. Manager McKevitt is severely handicapped at present by the absence of four of his best players but is making the most of the situation. Sisson the crack center-fielder is in the hospital. Jackson, Simmons, Doak, Ridgeway, and Walters have not reported and will not be able to join the team until the latter part of the month.

Score by innings:

	R.	H.	E.
Danville	3	0 1 0 0 0 4 1 3	12 13 3
Greensboro	0	1 0 0 1 0 1 0 2	5 10 7

Double plays—Danville 1. Stolen bases—Danville 4, Greensboro 1. Batteries—Danville, Howard, Moser, Westlake and Wall. Greensboro, Mersman, Long, Walsh and Bentley. Base on balls—off Howard 4, Moser 3, off Mersman 1. Struck out—by Howard 2, Moser 2, Mersman 2, Long 1. Time of game—2.15. Umpire—Brandt. Attendance—400.

Today and tomorrow the locals will go up against the Boston Nationals which will give the old players as well as the younger ones a chance to show what they can do against big leaguers.

The game this afternoon promises to be more interesting than that of yesterday. The admission will be only 25 cents and as this will be the first time Greensboro fans have had an opportunity of seeing a club in the National League play it is predicted that there will be a large attendance. The game will be called at 4 o'clock.

The Nationals Win.

Yesterday the Boston Nationals defeated the Winston team by the score of 5 to 4, the game being played on the Winston diamond. The game was exceedingly interesting, the score being tied from the fourth to the eighth innings. The slab work of each team was good. Smith for the Winston team did fine work considering the fact that it was his first league game. Winston made 4 runs, 6 hits and 8 errors. Boston made 5 runs, 8 hits and 4 errors.

Charlotte, like Greensboro, decided it didn't want a new charter. Folks prefer to take a new governmental scheme in homeopathic doses.

For the second time the Supreme Court of Alabama has declared the prohibition law of that State valid. But the "antis" are determined and will probably try a third time to overthrow it.

Senators Aldrich and Root have both gone on record as favoring a permanent tariff board. They want to relieve Senators and Representatives of the work. The incident suggests the inquiry, What do the Congressmen get pay for any way?

Real Christianity consists of forgetting one good deed and hurrying to the next.—Florida Times-Union.

But most people get so busy patting themselves on the back for doing one good deed that they clean forget to do another one.

In the opinion of Senator Smith, of South Carolina, the passage of the Payne tariff bill, as offered, would mean Democratic victory in the next election. Surely the people will find some time which party is honest in demanding the greatest good to the greatest number.

At last the time has come when the public may be said to have forgotten Harry Thaw.—Baltimore Sun.

You bet. The public is thinking now about the increased price of socks and stockings likely to result from the enactment of the Payne tariff bill into law.

The commissioners of New Hanover county have offered a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of any party violating the State prohibition law. The law should be enforced and the reward offered by the New Hanover commissioners will tend to its enforcement. Prohibition can be made to prohibit to a reasonable degree.

At last accounts Mr. Roosevelt was having a "bully" time. And when he wasn't having a "bully" time he was having a "perfectly corking" time. There is just no way to keep the man from having a good time. And we don't mind saying that it is a good example that he is setting. Most people are having the sort of "time" they choose to regard it.

Cipriano Castro is returning from Europe to the West Indies with the avowed purpose of recovering the presidency of Venezuela. Knowing Castro's capacity for making trouble, President Gomez, who stepped into Castro's shoes when Castro went to Europe in search of health, is spending some anxious moments. There is every indication that the word "Castro" will in the coming days appear often in the headlines.

A U. S. circuit court sitting at New Orleans has reversed an inferior Federal judge who restrained the Alabama railroad commission from putting a two-and-a-half cent passenger rate in effect. The court put itself on record as favoring an appeal to State courts as a first recourse. Thus is the doctrine of state's rights again enforced by a Federal court. The "higher up" Federal judges, it will be noticed, are the least arbitrary of all.

The North Carolina Congressmen, with the exception of Mr. Kitchin, voted against putting lumber on the free list. There is a duty of $2 a thousand feet now. To reduce it to nothing would be running the coulter too deep. It is always well to be a little conservative in handling a matter of great importance. Perhaps a compromise will finally be struck, reducing the duty on lumber substantially but not taking it off completely.

If you have something you want to sell the thing to do is to advertise it. "Newspaperdom," a newspaper devoted to the interests of publishers, well remarks that "in no other country in the world can an article of genuine worth be brought into universal use so rapidly as in the United States." This is because there are so many newspapers. The business firm which does not use the newspapers to get before the people cannot be in earnest in wanting to get before the people.

DEWEY S. S. R. P. HOBSON WANTS NAME CHONGED.

Small Colored Boy Staggers Under Burden of Being Four Naval Heroes.

New York World.

Under the crushing burden of being four naval heroes at once, a small colored boy is laboring near College Point, L. I., and if his woe doesn't turn him white and drive him into an untimely grave, he is going to see a lawyer man about it when he gets big enough.

Like a pile of ton weights these names are piled upon the youth of eleven:

He's Dewey—
Sampson—
Schley—
Richmond P. Hobson.

His father, whose complexion resembles the coal he heaves for a living, is Eleazer Hobson. Dewey S. S. R. P. Hobson is the eighth child. The others envy him his six-barreled name, but Dewey, etc., would be mighty glad to transfer it to any of them if his parents would let him. Those parents are deeply grieved by his rebellion. They think he ought to be proud of having a bunch of names not possessed by any other boy in America.

"It takes my ma so long to call me by my name,' said the youth of many prefixes yesterday, "that if she starts calling when I'm down the street, I'm inside the house before she finishes. I can't do anything now, but just wait till I'm twenty-one. Say, would a Judge let me name myself just plain Bill?"

Domestic Economy.

Chicago Journal.

"Hey, mon,' exclaimed the braw, bonnie North County man, "thrift is a wunnerful thing!"

"Yes," replied his English traveling companion, "you're right there. Now, I gave my wife $100 to keep the New Year holiday with, and—would you believe it?—instead of exceeding it she saved part of it to buy herself a hat."

"That's nowt," replied the Scotsman, "My wife gives the kids ha'pennies apiece to go to bed supperless; when they're asleep she takes the ha'pennies off 'em ageean, and then she makes 'em do wi'out ony breakfast for losing 'em. Hey, mon, that's thrift!"

REMARKABLE RECORD.

Flesh-forming Food That Succeeds Nearly Every Time.

A man or woman might as well starve outright as to take food into the stomach and not have it assimilated, yet in Greensboro as well as in every other town and city, there are many people who are thin, pale and seem underfed, simply because the food they eat is not assimilated, and fails to make good blood and firm flesh.

Samose, the wonderful flesh-forming food, taken before or after meals, mingles with the food, so that it is assimilated by the system and makes rich blood and pleasing plumpness. No one can use it for a week or ten days without a noticeable gain in weight. Statistics show that out of every one hundred people who commence the use of Samose, 98 will find a full gain in weight and restoration of health and strength.

Anyone who is thin, weak, scrawny and emaciated can put 50c. on deposit with Howard Gardner and take home a box of Samose. If the treatment does not give a noticeable increase in good, firm flesh and restore strength and health, he will return the money without any questions.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50c.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is completed by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

A FAMOUS LIBRARY.

Origin of the System of "Boning" For College Examinations.

Just before examination time college students begin to study at top speed. Usually they call that unwonted occupation "cramming," "grinding" or "boning." The first, of course, means literally stuffing knowledge into themselves. The second was suggested by the phrase about keeping one's nose to the grindstone. But how about "boning?" It was a grateful student who thus dubbed the process of absorbing information, for he named it after the "trot" or "pony" that he used.

It was the famous Bohn library of translations to which the English student resorted as an ever ready help in time of trouble. Henry George Bohn started his library in 1846 and began what afterward become a big business. For one thing, he began purchasing "remainders"—that is, the old plates of standard works and translations—and printing cheap editions from them. Bohn found the publishing of standard foreign works in English so profitable that he developed the business, and it used to pay to buy translations from poor hack A. B.'s who were glad enough to get a farthing or two for their knowledge.

Finally practically all the ancient classics and some modern ones were obtainable in the Bohn library, and so popular did they become among students who feared being plucked that Bohn's German was turned into English, and "boning" was henceforth recognized as digging into dead writers' works by means of the crafty publisher's translations.—New York Tribune.

VOODOOISM IN HAITI.

The Vexed Question of Human Sacrifice In the Worship.

That the hold which the voodoo worship has on the people of Haiti is stronger than the power of the church is shown by the fact that the day before the writer's inspection of a voodoo temple in the mountains, where he saw six goatskin drums, a Roman Catholic priest had visited the district and made his ministrations conditional on the people destroying their instruments, but they refused. The government does not, as a rule, interfere with the practices of the cult on account of the political influence of its leaders.

The question whether human flesh is now eaten in connection with the voodoo ceremonies is a perplexing one, which it is impossible to answer with any degree of confidence. Local opinion is divided on the matter. Some assert that the practice is secretly in vogue; others categorically deny it. No one can be found to state that he has been an eyewitness of any such sacrifice. The conclusion which the writer came to is that there is no organized human sacrifice taking place as a part of the voodoo ceremonial, but that in ordinary life an occasional instance of cannibalism occurs—as murder cases occur in civilized countries—where the perpetrator, probably from a tribe of anthropophagi, becoming temporarily insane or highly excited, reverts to the aboriginal habit. It should be added that public opinion generally reprobates the act, and the educated Haitien is thoroughly ashamed of the dark stain which lies upon his country.—London Times.

A Pious Advertisement.

Moral suasion of the most ingenious kind is evident in the following advertisement printed in the Pennsylvania Gazette for June 23, 1787. The author of this little masterpiece is supposed to be no other than Franklin himself. "D. F.," then, stands for Deborah Franklin:

"Taken out of a pew in the church some months since a Common Prayer Book bound in red, gilt and lettered D. F. on each cover. The person who took it is advised to open it and read the eighth commandment and afterward return it into the same pew again, upon which no further notice will be taken."

The Surprise.

"That's one of the biggest surprises I ever got," said the theater manager.

"How did you get it?"

"See that man over there? He came to my office and told me that we were having a lot of bully shows this season. Said last week's production was the best yet and that he'd sent all his friends to see it. Went on to say that his favorite actor was with this week's show and he'd break his neck to get here."

"Well, where does the surprise come in?"

"He left without asking for a pass."—Cleveland Leader.

Why Papa Was Still.

"Harold," said his mother, "you were very restless in church this morning. Why couldn't you keep still, like your father?"

"I don't know, mamma," replied the observant youngster, "unless it was 'cause I wasn't asleep."—Chicago News.

Her Query.

"Where is my husband's valet?" asked Mrs. Sorer.

"He is fitting on Mr. Sorer's new boots, ma'am," the butler answered.

"And is my husband with him?' she inquired.—New York Press.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Citizens of Greensboro:—

Having been solicited by many friends to run for Mayor of Greensboro, I have decided to do so and will be a candidate at the approaching Democratic Primary for this office. In rendering this decision, I do so reluctantly, fully realizing the grave responsibilities attached thereto. Our city is no longer looked upon as the "village" but with the rapid strides made within the last few years, makes it imperative that her public servants, and they are no greater than those whom they serve, be fully alive to the demands of her Citizenship, rendering unto them a just, economical and aggressive administration. To serve as such would be my only desire and with this announcement, I place myself at your disposal, asking for your vote, but feeling that whatever you should elect to do, will be for the very best interest of our city.

Very Respectfully,
W. E. HARRISON.

WAR ON CONSUMPTION.

To Wipe Out Disease Ignorance Concerning it Must Be Overcome, Says National Association.

New York, April 7.—Consumption is receiving nearly one-half mile of publicity a week, is the unique statement which the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis issues to day. According to some recent statistics compiled by that body, the various newspapers of the United States printed articles concerning tuberculosis, which, when measured, amounted to over 50,000 column inches of space in two weeks.

The investigation which the National Association conducted included all of the daily and weekly newspapers throughout the United States as well as some of the larger journals and magazines. In the two weeks which were taken as a standard, it was found that 51,557 column inches of space was devoted to the subject of tuberculosis. If all of this matter were gathered together at one time, it would make a newspaper the ordinary size of 369 pages printed solid, without any advertisements, all on the subject of tuberculosis. If it were arranged in one long chain, it would make a single column of matter four-fifths of a mile long and two and one-quarter inches wide.

Among the numerous agencies which are today joining in the fight against tuberculosis, such as the school, church and labor unions, the press is in the foremost rank. Never before in the history of American journalism has the press taken such a lively and continued interest in a subject pertaining to human health. When it is considered that tuberculosis alone kills nearly 200,000 people in the United States every year, and that there are at the present time at least 600,000 cases of this disease in the various parts of the United States, a sufficient warrant for the activity of the press is given.

The following States are leading at the present time in the amount of publicity being given to tuberculosis: New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Connecticut, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois and Texas. However, there is not a State in the Union in which the press is not devoting some space to the subject of tuberculosis.

Not only is the campaign being promoted by the weekly and daily press, but it has also been taken up by various magazines, weekly story papers, trade journals, religious papers and others of a similar nature. Even the foreign papers are interested. A bulletin sent out recently by the National Association was printed in five different languages. An instance of the readiness to co-operate in the campaign against tuberculosis may be noted in the experience of one prominent weekly journal which devotes itself entirely to philanthropic and charitable subjects. Seven years ago, when this paper started to publish items on tuberculosis, a number of its readers considered it extremely bad policy, because of the apparent indifference and repugnance of the subject. Today such articles are read eagerly and thoroughly.

The National Association declares that consumption will never be wiped out until the prevalent ignorance concerning this disease is overcome. To combat successfully this lack of knowledge, immense amounts of literature of various sorts are being distributed constantly. Within a year's time thousands of tons of leaflets, aggregating over one hundred million pages, are distributed by the various organizations engaged in the warfare against tuberculosis. But more than all of these individual agencies, the National Association believes that the press is the greatest means of educating the masses concerning this disease. If the present rate of interest on the part of the newspaper world continues, it is estimated that within a few years every man, woman and child in the United States will have learned the simple doctrines of tuberculosis.

Cats Disguised as Snakes.

"Do you know why a cat hisses when in rage or danger?" said a nature student. "Well, sir, she hisses as a flying criminal puts on blue goggles and a false beard. With that hiss she tries instinctively to disguise herself as a snake.

"Did you ever notice the markings on a cat's tail? They are transverse, like a snake's markings. The primitive cat in the wild state lived in rather tall grass. When danger approached he hissed and at the same time put up his tail and waved it slowly. The oncomer heard that serpentine hiss. He saw the tail, and only the tail, which waved in an ominous, serpentine manner. He said 'snake in the grass' and withdrew.

"The cat of today, hissing horribly and waving to and fro his erected tail, follows ancestral precedent. It helps him not at all; nevertheless he always does it, thinking it the right thing. Is not man sometimes like the cat in this respect?"

A laugh costs too much if it is bought at the expense of propriety.—Quintilian.

ECZEMA LODGES IN THE SKIN

Not a Blood Disease—cure by Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

For many years eczema was supposed to be a blood disease and was erroneously treated as such, but now the best authorities agree that eczema is only a skin disease and must be cured through the skin. The eminent skin specialist, Dr. D. D. Dennis, first discovered the eczema germ and his discovery was quickly taken up in both Germany and France.

To kill the eczema germ and at the same time heal the skin, Dr. Dennis compounded oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc. The remedy is a liquid, not a mere salve, hence it sinks right into the pores of the skin. Washing with this oil of wintergreen compound seems to take the itch away at once; soon the scales drop away and the disease disappears. Friess-Klutz Drug Co. The prescription has now been used so long as to have proven its absolute merit and we do not hesitate to express our confidence in D. D. D. Prescription as used with D. D. D. Soap.

NOTICE OF SALE OF POMONA MANUFACTURING COMPANY.

United States of America—In the District Court of the United States For the Western District of North Carolina.

In the matter of Pomona Cotton Manufacturing Company—Bankrupt.

By virtue of a decree of the District Court of the United States, for the Western District of North Carolina, made by Hon. G. S. Ferguson, Jr., Referee in Bankruptcy, at Greensboro, North Carolina, on the 16th day of March, 1909, "In the matter of the Pomona Cotton Manufacturing Company, in Bankruptcy," the undersigned trustees will on Tuesday the 27th day of April 1909, at the hour of 3 o'clock p. m. at the Court House door of Guilford county, in the city of Greensboro, North Carolina, offer for sale by public auction to the last and highest bidder for cash, or its equivalent, all of the real estate, land, buildings, machinery, plant, apparatus and equipment of the Pomona Cotton Manufacturing Company, Bankrupt, consisting of one two story brick building containing about eleven thousand and seven hundred (11,700) spindles and all necessary preparatory machinery, together with 330 looms and all necessary machinery such as slashers, beamers and cloth room machinery; also a one story brick building containing about eight thousand (8,000) spindles and necessary preparatory machinery, with four thousand (4,000) twister spindles.

The whole plant is equipped with automatic sprinklers, and has standard fire protection.

The power plant consists of three boilers and two engines; one 400 K. W. direct connected cross-compound condensing, the other 250 K. W. condensing engine. The power is distributed over each department by small motors.

This mill is new and well equipped for the purpose of manufacturing white goods and yarn. The mill carries with it approximately 75 acres of land in two tracts. The first tract consisting of about 70 acres lying between the tracks of the Southern Railway Company and the Winston-Salem branch of the Southern Railway Company, west of Pomona Junction and on which the mill buildings and tenement houses are situated. The second tract consisting of about 5 acres lying just across the Winston-Salem branch of the Southern Railway Company, north of the above tract and being the land purchased from the J. Van Lindley Nursery Company by Etowah mills, book 166, page 680. For full description of both tracts reference is hereby had to Book 180, page 547 of the Records of Guilford county.

The foregoing property will be shown to interested parties by calling upon J. C. Watkins one of the trustees at Greensboro, North Carolina.

The terms of the sale will be cash upon confirmation by the court, but a deposit of five per cent or security satisfactory to the trustees will be required of the successful bidder. The purchaser at said sale in complying with and discharging his bid may use claims against the estate of the said bankrupt, which shall have been proven, and allowed to the extent of their dividend value. Sale will be subject to the confirmation of the court.

This property is in good condition and well located about three miles west of Greensboro, N. C., in Piedmont North Carolina, one of the most healthful sections of the State.

This March 25, 1909.

'KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Greensboro People Know How to Save It.

Many Greensboro people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

Mrs. Lulu Helm, Dixie street, Burlington, N. C., says: "I take pleasure in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills and I hope my statement will be the means of benefiting other sufferers from kidney complaint. I, as well as other members of my family have used this remedy with the best of results. I am confident that Doan's Kidney Pills, if taken in accordance with the directions, will give entire satisfaction."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

A Bad Change.

While holding a term of court at Augusta once Judge Walton sentenced a man to seven years in prison for a grave crime. The respondent's counsel asked for a mitigation of the sentence on the ground that the prisoner's health was very poor. "Your honor," said he, "I am satisfied that my client cannot live out half that term, and I beg of you to change the sentence." "Well, under those circumstances," said the judge, "I will change the sentence. I will make it for life instead of seven years." It is almost needless to add that the respondent chose to abide by the original sentence, which the judge permitted him to elect.—Argonaut.

Fine Old Spanish Emeralds.

"Fine old Spanish emeralds" is a phrase which means something quite different from what it seems to imply. There never was an emerald mined in Spain, but after the conquest of Peru the conquerors brought home great quantities of loot, of which emeralds formed an important part. In this way the finest emeralds came into possession of the old Spanish families, and as very few had been seen in Europe previous to that time all the best stones soon became classed as fine old Spanish emeralds. Today the expression still applies to the best emeralds of any source.
